The handsome home being erected by Mr. B. B. McCall is nearing completion. When finished this residence will be one of the finest in Madison and will prove an ornament to that section of the city.

For shoes that are comfortable and stylish call on Thurston.

Mr. W. P. Thompson who has purchased the Beggs place on the outskirts of the city is making preparation to commence extensive alterations and improvements. This place is one of the nicest about here and Mr. Thompson will restore it to its former beauty.

Mr. Thos. J. Beggs is now in New York selecting a large stock of goods for the fall and winter trade of his big house, T. J. Beggs & Co. He will visit all the markets of the East and it is needless to state that his selections will be of the best and most seasonable varieties.

For hardware at correct prices call on Taylor.

Among the recent comers to Madison is Mr. T. M. Smith, an old Confederate Veteran, from Mobile, Ala. Mr. Smith has opened up a small but well selected stock of choice family groceries in the shop of Mott Bunting, and will be glad to see and serve his comrades at all times. Give him a call.

Mr. W. B. Dutton brought into our office yesterday morning a specimen of the Japanese Chestnut, in the bur, which he raised on his place four miles from town. He states that the tree from which he took the one presented us is well loaded, therefore we presume he and his family will enjoy roasted chestnuts this winter.

WANTED—Five Thousand bushels of and one hundred thousand pounds of fodder by Fraleigh, Hinely, Smith Company.

C. B. Smith, until recently editor of the Jasper News, is just establishing the New Enterprise at Madison. Mr. Smith is a talented man, a good speaker and writer and will be a splendid addition to Madison's progressive citizens. Here's success to him.—Miami Metropolis. Thanks, heartily, brother Tatum.

The game of baseball which was scheduled to take place in this city on Tuesday afternoon last did not take place owing to the failure of the Mosely Hall team to come to time. We understand that the battery of the team could not get away, hence no game. We hope the game will be pulled off some time in the near future.

Do you need a hat of the latest style? Thurston sells them.

Madison is a lively town at all times but more particularly on Saturdays of each week, this being the day when the citizens of the county come to town to do their trading. The town was well filled last Saturday and trading was brisk. Considerable of the new cotton crop was brought in and marketed at 5 cents per pound in the seed.

Mr. B. B. McCall is actively engaged in getting things in readiness for the cotton season at the works of the Madison Ginning Co. This ginney is one of the most complete and up-to-date institutions of the kind in the State being equipped with all the latest labor saving appliances and so and operates its own electric

Here is a chance for the display of your musical talent before an appreciative audience. Young men, come to the meeting next Tuesday night and lend your assistance toward organizing a minstrel company. Dr. Hodges is the ring leader and that means that it is to be a go. Read the notice elsewhere and don't forget to be present Tuesday night.

Charlie Thomas, one of the Madison boys of several years ago, spent several days of last and this week in town viewing the scenes and renewing acquaintances of former days. Mr. Thomas is now a citizen of that great Southern city, Atlanta, where he is engaged in a prosperous livery business. He returned to his home Tuesday.

A brand new line of goods of all descriptions at Thurston's.

We were pleased and gratified to receive a visit one day last week from our old friend Mr. J. M. Clardy, one of the staunch and progressive farmers of Hamilton county. Jim seemed much pleased with our town as a market. You'll find this a fine market, Jim, at all times. Come to see us often and never forget that the latch string to our sanctum hangs on the outside.

Clothing to suit and fit at Taylor's.

Mr. A. E. Fraleigh, president of Fraleigh, Hinely, Smith, Co., accompanied by Mrs. Fraleigh and the babies, will leave to-morrow for Louisville and St. Louis in which cities they will spend several days. Mr. Fraleigh while away will purchase largely of horses and mules for this market and will be assisted in his selections by Mr. B. N. Tucker than whom no better posted stock man can be found in these parts.

The same price, and that the lowest, to all at Thurston's.

Madison is destined to be a stock market second to none in this State or Georgia. For wagons, buggies and all rolling stock used for pleasure or necessity to say nothing of the motive power for such vehicles, either horses or mules, we are of the opinion that our town will lead. Messrs. Lines & Thomas have opened up a wagon, buggy and stock business at the Kentucky stables and are prepared to furnish the trade with all that is wanted at lowest of price. Read their advertisement in this paper and then give them a call.

See Thurston's goods before purchasing.

Messrs. Jim Bevan and Will Barrett drove down to Lee one day last week but did not return in the same buggy. When near the station the horse became frightened and ran away. The buggy was overturned and Mr. Bevan's head became entangled in the top and he was dragged some distance by the neck, that member being nearly dislocated. Mr. Barrett was thrown to the ground with such force that the breath left his body and for a time it was feared that both young men had been seriously injured. Happily, such was not the case, the only serious damage being the complete demolition of the buggy.
